ORE makes every effort to assure that exhibitors have a great stalling experience with ample space so please identify the total number of head you are exhibiting. For example, if you are bringing a heifer and a cow/calf pair, click 3. This will also help us know if you are bringing a steer that will be going on to Steer Classic.

Required for Department 200

Please select one of the following fees from Group: Alberta Junior Angus Membership

AJAA Mbrsh. required to show $15.00

Already have AJAA Membership $0.00

Not showing Angus $0.00

Submit Fee Selections Cancel/Back

If you are exhibiting in any purebred or commercial Angus class, you will need to pay your AJAA membership. Click on the appropriate box and the fee will be added to your total.

Step 2: Premium Book & List of Classes - Select the show that you wish to enter. You will next click on the + to see all the classes for each show. For each entry click "Add" and complete. For skill classes, you will only have to click "Add" and it will automatically add to your list.

Step 5: Fees - New for 2014 is an opportunity for each youth exhibitor to identify if they are a 'Rookie' or a 'Returning' Exhibitor. To better serve the needs of our first time families, these rookies (1st or 2nd year, etc.) will be paired with a capable and talented mentor! There are $0 attached to this field but allows ORE to collect the data.

Required for all Exhibitors

Please select one of the following fees from Group: Participant Fee

Returning Participant Fee $25.00

Rookie Participant Fee $25.00

Submit Fee Selections Cancel/Back

Step 9: Payment - Because this is an American program, the funds will say US Dollars but no worries, from an accounting perspective, it is all CDN funds! Should you have any problems with the payment process, please call the OAS office 403.556.3770 for assistance! Under Comments, please identify Team Grooming Partners and unique stalling requirements.
